

California Guard Card – Announcing 16 New Continuing Education Course Online Security Training

NITA is proud to announce 16 new continuing education training options in California for Security Guard Card licensure and renewals.

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, July 11, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- NITA is proud to announce 16 new continuing education training options in California for Security Guard Card licensure and renewals.

California Guard Card Security continuing education training courses are offered on NITA's 100% online digital platform and are available for immediate enrollment.

We understand the busy lives of security guards and NITA's comprehensive continuing education training courses are designed to accommodate the demanding security professional lifestyle.”

Sandra von Eschenbach, Executive Vice President

In accordance with the California Business and Professional Code Section 7583.6(f), California Guard Card holders are required to complete eight (8) hours of instruction annually to maintain their license. This additional training should include instruction in private security subject matters.

NITA's California Guard Card continuing education training re-enforces the training covered in the original Guard Card training for licensure. A sampling of industry-related topics include

- Weapons of mass destruction

- Security policies and procedures
- Physical hardware for Security Guard Card licensees
- Bomb threat awareness
- Crowd Control
- Effective Communication
- And so much more

“Continuing Education is important for your California Guard Card and NITA's online platform offers training on your schedule. We understand the busy lives of security guards and NITA's comprehensive continuing education training courses are designed to accommodate the demanding security professional lifestyle. We want to exceed the needs of the California security industry and know that you will enjoy the user experience at NITA,” said Sandra von Eschenbach, Executive Vice President of NITA.
