

Tatvic Analytics and Google Maps Platform Partner to Empower Businesses with Enhanced Mapping and Location Solutions

AHMEDABAD, GUJARAT, INDIA, June 28, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Tatvic Analytics, a leading provider of advanced data analytics and marketing technology solutions, is excited to announce its partnership with Google Maps Platform, a next-generation, comprehensive suite of location-based services designed to foster innovation and drive remarkable business outcomes.

As a Google Partner, Tatvic Analytics is uniquely positioned to deliver accurate industry solutions centred around Google Products & Services. Acting as a single-point strategic advisor, Tatvic Analytics will assist businesses in implementing GMAPs, optimizing costs, identifying the right APIs to address industry-specific challenges, and unlocking the full potential of the Google Maps Platform Stack.

"Our position as a Google Premier Partner has been strengthened further by the integration of Google Maps Platform into our existing suite of Google products, enabling us to provide unparalleled value to our clients and drive their success in today's dynamic business environment," said Ravi Pathak, CEO of Tatvic Analytics.

By taking advantage of this partnership, businesses will have the flexibility to choose the most suitable API for their use case and have access to volumetric discounts. Furthermore, comprehensive billing and technical support services are provided, along with accelerated new feature launches, to stay at the forefront of innovation.

Additionally, Tatvic Analytics will provide customized solutions tailored to meet the specific needs of different industries. Whether it's BFSI, retail, e-commerce, logistics, or real estate, Tatvic Analytics will leverage Google Maps Platform comprehensive data to deliver industry-specific insights and help businesses gain a competitive edge in their respective markets.
