SQ NET & Olivia Harris

SequelNet has allowed the firm to focus on its core competencies, confidently knowing that its IT infrastructure is in capable hands.

Furthermore, SequelNet's comprehensive backup and disaster recovery solution has been particularly beneficial for Olivia Harris. Given the sensitive nature of the data handled by tax consultants, this level of data protection is indispensable. It offers peace of mind to the firm and its clients, knowing that their crucial financial data is safe and can be quickly recovered in the event of a disaster.

In addition to these services, SequelNet also offers Microsoft 365 services. Microsoft 365 is a versatile application that many businesses use. Its goal is to improve workflow and lower collaboration costs. By leveraging these services, Olivia Harris has been able to improve team collaboration and work more efficiently.

Cybersecurity is another key area of SequelNet's service offering. In today's digital age, where cyber threats are increasingly prevalent, having a robust cybersecurity system is crucial. SequelNet has helped Olivia Harris strengthen its cyber defenses, ensuring the safety and security of their digital assets.

Lastly, SequelNet's consulting services have been pivotal in addressing potential organizational problems within Olivia Harris. Through their expert guidance and solutions, they have assisted the firm in identifying and resolving issues, thereby improving their overall operational efficiency.
