/EINPresswire.com/ -- Sleepy Bear Minute Mysteries invite the listener to match wits with Professor Nervo and his nervous companion Jitters.

Originally broadcast in 1983 and 1984, these whodunits challenged millions of public radio listeners to test their crime-solving mettle by finding the culprit in a series of baffling murders, not all of which were caused by the sponsor's product.
