

WEED AND WHISKEY NEWS' JERRY "J-MAN" JOYNER SET TO HONE COMEDIC SKILLS AT LAUNCH OF FIRST EVER COMEDY FANTASY CAMP

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, June 25, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- After making a name for himself in the cannabis and spirits space with his unique style of delivering news, Jerry "J-Man" Joyner is set to take a leap in a new direction this fall. The host of the weekly news show, Weed and Whiskey News, is headed to Hollywood to attend the inaugural Comedy Fantasy Camp from October 12th to 15th, 2023. This opportunity will further his ability to combine humor and news in a way that resonates with his audience.

Joyner's show, which streams on Roku, YouTube, and on www.weedandwhiskey.tv, has been a standout among enthusiasts of cannabis and spirits, with its unique blend of in-depth news, engaging interviews, and most notably, his signature comedic approach to information delivery.

Joyner's attendance at the Comedy Fantasy Camp is a thrilling development for fans, friends, and family alike. The camp, brought to life by the creators of the world-famous Rock 'n' Roll Fantasy Camp, will offer a four-day immersive experience in Hollywood, CA. Aspiring comedians, television writers, and comedy fans will have the chance to learn and collaborate with some of the industry's top talent.

"We're incredibly excited for this opportunity to enrich our show with top-tier comedy insights from industry titans. I am thrilled and can't wait to bring even more laughs to our loyal viewers," said Joyner.

The Comedy Fantasy Camp boasts an impressive roster of guest stars including late-night icon Jay Leno, top podcaster and stand-up comic Adam Carolla, Alonzo Bodden, and renowned TV writers such as Jeff Astroff (Friends), Liz Astroff (King of Queens), Steve Basilone (The Goldbergs) and Kevin Hench (Tim Allen), among others. With tickets available at comedyfantasycamp.com, attendees will have the chance to develop their stand-up routines, write skits, perform on a comedy stage, and even pitch show ideas to a panel of seasoned producers and writers.

"Being able to learn from and perform alongside comedy giants is a dream come true," said Joyner. "The skills and insights I will gain from this experience will no doubt translate into an even more engaging and entertaining Weed and Whiskey News."

Rock 'n' Roll Fantasy Camp founder, David Fishof, expressed his enthusiasm for the new venture, "It's time we bring that same energy and access to comedy fans." With this expansion into the comedy sector, the Fantasy Camp brand promises to deliver another transformative experience for its participants.
