

Chinese author Xue Mo's works will be on display at the 2023 ALA event

Chinese author Xue Mo's works will be on display at the 2023 ALA event

AURORA, ILLINOIS, US, June 26, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The American Library Association (ALA) will host its Annual Conference and Exhibition from June 23rd to 26th at McCormick Place in Chicago, USA. Recognized as the world's premier library event, the ALA Annual Conference congregates thousands of individuals spanning librarians, educators, authors, publishers, library advocates, exhibitors, and more, in a global communion of intellectual dialogue and discovery.

Xue Mo's works will be on display at booth 4136 during this year's ALA event

"Yuwa," a poignant tale authored by rising literary talent Chen Yixin and translated by renowned American linguist Howard Goldblatt, will make its English debut at the upcoming exhibition. The book chronicles the story of a child in the western reaches of Northwestern China, delving into the child's solitary musings, as well as the harsh, gut-wrenching reality of confronting the mortality of dearly loved relatives and friends.

“

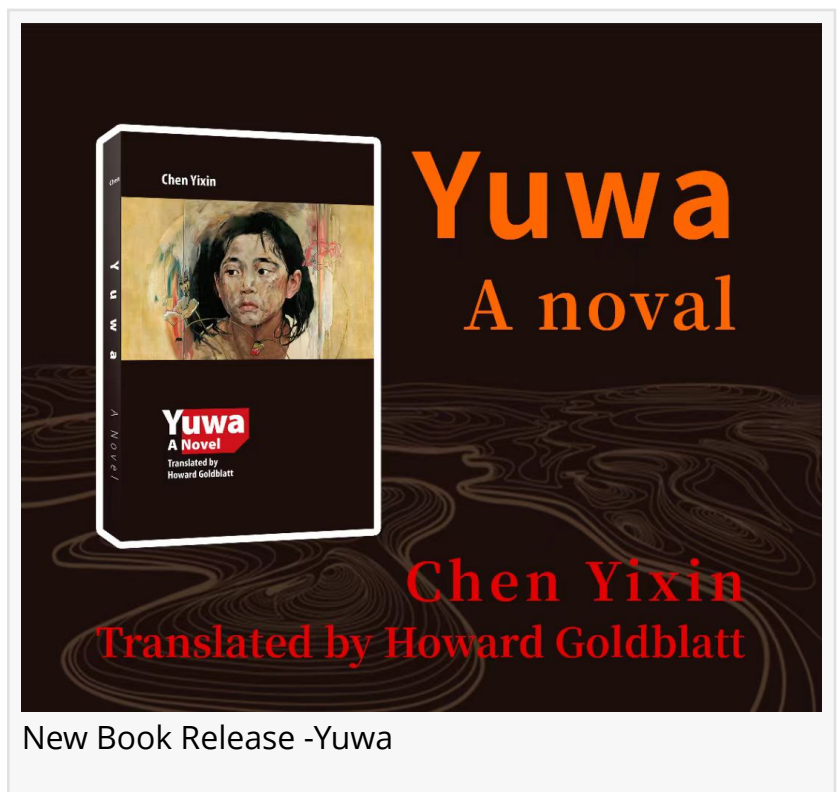

This is a great book—very lean and disciplined and full of wonderful writing, with powerful and authentic characters, all set in the harshness of the Dark Winds, the winter and the penury of life”

Author Victoria B. Cass

Esteemed author Victoria B. Cass lavished praise on “Yuwa,” stating, “This is a great book—very lean and disciplined and full of wonderful writing, with powerful and authentic characters, all set in the harshness of the Dark Winds, the winter and the penury of life. Chen has managed to weave the language of myth and storytelling through the episodes, giving myth a transformative power. A fantastic novel.”

At the same time, the works of acclaimed author Xue Mo will be showcased at the event. As an international literary figure, Xue Mo captured top billing on the international media attention list at the 2022 Frankfurt Book Fair. He holds the unique distinction of being the only Chinese author with an independent booth at the 2023 London Book Fair. Xue Mo, a towering figure in contemporary Chinese literature, has been nominated for the prestigious Mao Dun Literature Award on three occasions. His vast oeuvre spans novels, poetry compilations, essays, and cultural works, marking him as a highly productive and influential author.

Xue Mo's works will be on display at booth 4136 during this year's ALA event, and friends from all industries are warmly invited to explore his rich literary contributions.

Contact:

Erika Liu

773-648-5522

www.xuemo.cn/en

Ida

Ruxue International Media Inc

email us here

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

Twitter

Instagram

YouTube

TikTok

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/641528418>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2023 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.