“To put out this song that's so true and freeing during the month of Pride and have it displayed in the city, there are no words to describe how I feel. All I can say is I'm grateful.”

As is said of the wren, “for such a small bird, it has a remarkably loud voice”, and Calliope Wren has been stretching those powerful pipes.

Not unlike her ancient ancestral namesake, Calliope (Wren) is “pure eloquence. Her poetry is epic! The ecstatic harmony of her voice makes her the Chief of all Muses”.
