

The Nonprofit Alliance of Consumer Advocates Helps Homeowner Secure Free Loan Modification Amidst Financial Hardship

ADELANTO, CA, UNITED STATES, June 26, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Deonne Berry, a homeowner struggling with financial difficulties exacerbated by the COVID-19 pandemic, found solace in the compassionate services provided by the Nonprofit Alliance of Consumer Advocates. Through their diligent efforts and unwavering commitment, Ms. Berry successfully obtained a free loan modification, allowing her to retain her cherished property.

Ms. Berry's situation was dire, with her mortgage payments falling behind by an alarming 13 months. The economic repercussions of the pandemic had dealt her a heavy blow, leaving her searching for assistance to navigate the complex world of mortgage modification. However, other businesses she approached demanded substantial fees for their services, pushing her deeper into distress.

Determined to find a solution that aligned with her goal of keeping her property, Ms. Berry turned to the internet in search of reputable nonprofit organizations specializing in mortgage aid. It was during her search that she stumbled upon the Nonprofit Alliance of Consumer Advocates—an organization renowned for its exceptional A+ Better Business Bureau (BBB) rating and stellar 5-star reviews on Google.

Ms. Berry's mortgage delinquency amounted to an overwhelming $16,075.76, with an interest rate of 3.750% and a monthly payment of $798.18. Recognizing the urgency of her situation, an experienced volunteer advocate from the Nonprofit Alliance of Consumer Advocates promptly stepped in to guide her through the process.

Foreclosure defense

The diligent advocate swiftly collected all the necessary documents, leaving no room for lender rejection or procedural setbacks. Their expertise and attention to detail ensured that Ms. Berry's application for a loan modification was presented flawlessly, maximizing her chances of a favorable outcome.

With the devoted assistance of the Nonprofit Alliance of Consumer Advocates, Ms. Berry's journey toward financial recovery took a significant turn. The organization's unwavering commitment to social responsibility allowed them to secure a zero out-of-pocket cost loan modification for her. Consequently, her entire delinquent amount was reduced to zero, while the interest rate remained at 3.750%. Furthermore, her monthly payment was adjusted to a more manageable $786.16, providing her with newfound stability and relief.

Overwhelmed with gratitude, Ms. Berry expressed her joy and satisfaction with the assistance she received from the Nonprofit Alliance of Consumer Advocates. Their dedicated efforts throughout the loan modification process had not only saved her from potential foreclosure but had also given her hope for a brighter financial future.

The Nonprofit Alliance of Consumer Advocates continues to make a profound impact in the lives of individuals facing mortgage hardships. By providing invaluable assistance, they empower homeowners to regain control over their financial well-being and foster stability in their communities. Their selfless commitment to consumer advocacy serves as a testament to the positive change that can be achieved through compassionate and dedicated nonprofit initiatives.

For more information about the Nonprofit Alliance of Consumer Advocates visit their website www.NACALaw.org , please visit or contact 855-622-2435

J. De La Vega
Nonprofit Alliance of Consumer Advocates
+1 855-622-2435

email us here

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

Instagram

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/641589247>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

