Greg Holcomb, and Tim
Durkovic*

Live in an architectural masterpiece built in 1973 by A. Quincy Jones, a luminary and AIA award-winning architect. Jones' aesthetic runs throughout the home, from the intimate connection with nature to the high ceilings and walls of glass. Actress Jennifer Aniston, along with multiple well known home and art collectors are known to own homes designed by A. Quincy Jones

You'll feel like you are in a treehouse as the home cantilevers over its elevated lot and into the surrounding vegetation. The open-plan design and setting create a backdrop for all-season entertaining. Walls of glass bring in an abundance of light and views in every direction. The interior spaces flow together, offering a supply of picturesque vignettes. The design of the outdoor living area invites the serenity of trickling water.

Listing agents Gus Ruelas, Greg Holcomb, and Tim Durkovic state, “Get ready to embark on a thrilling journey as we partner with Concierge Auctions to bring this architectural gem to the market. Bid digitally worldwide and seize the opportunity to own this historic treasure in Pasadena.”

This estate is in the heart of Pasadena, a historic and culture-rich enclave just northeast of Los Angeles. Old Pasadena, known for its palm tree-lined streets, Victorian and Art Deco buildings, and shopping and dining options, is only two miles from the property's front door. Live steps from Brookside Park, with an aquatics center, sports courts, and a plethora of green space for strolling and picnicking. The Brookside and Annandale golf clubs are under ten minutes away. Visit cultural institutions like the Norton Simon Museum of Art and the Huntington Library and Gardens. Ditch the car and walk to the iconic Rose Bowl stadium with its annual namesake football game. Natural areas such as Eagle Rock Canyon, Angeles National Forest, and the San Gabriel Mountains surround you. More world-class entertainment, culture, restaurants, and shopping await you in Los Angeles. Access to the 210 freeway provides easy access to Los Angeles and other points in Southern California.

The property's additional features include a 360-degree fireplace, and a cohesive open floor plan. The chef's kitchen features an eat-in casual dining area, large island with bar seating, and is equipped with designer appliances. The primary sanctuary boasts a private
