A first of its kind in the beauty industry, this innovative product is a solid mois-ture bar that is applied in the shower to wet skin. These nourishing and indulgent buns are formulated with the high-est quality organic ingredients including mango butter, cocoa butter, vitamin E and turmeric, to deeply hydrate and revitalize the skin while also giving a beautiful, golden glow.

Our Botanical Butter Buns are the ultimate indulgence for the skin”

Dana Roberts

The Botanical Butter Buns are perfect for those with dry or dehydrated skin, as they provide intense nourishment. They are also great for sun recovery as they will help protect tans, soothe sunburns and prevent skin from peeling.

“Our Botanical Butter Buns are the ultimate indulgence for the skin,” said Dana Roberts, founder of Malie Organics. “We wanted to create a product that was both luxurious and effective, using only the best natural ingredients to deeply moisturize and nourish the skin.”

Malie Organics' Botanical Butter Buns come in five delicious aromas including Mango Nectar, Plumeria, Koke'e, Pikake and Coconut Vanilla, each inspired by paradise, transforming your shower into a tropical oasis:

- Mango Nectar – The delicious, fruity scent of mango nectar carries the essence of summer. Enjoy the sweet and sassy aroma of this coveted superfruit and venture into the tropics.
- Plumeria – The beautiful, sweet plumeria is a traditional flower of the Hawaiian lei, treasured for its stunning rainbow of colors and exotic, uplifting aroma.
- Koke'e – Surround yourself with the wild and exotic plants of Hawai'i. Koke'e blends the islands' native maile (pronounced my-lee) vine with dewy florals and crisp greens, bringing to mind the breathtaking natural beauty of Hawai'i's mountainous terrain and lush rainforest.

- Pikake – A soft, sexy and sophisticated blend of tropical florals with a hint of spice. The pikake flower is a Ha-waiian jasmine, prized as the flower of love. Experience Hawai'i's warm nights and enchanting essence.

- Coconut Vanilla - Embodies the natural confections of paradise blending creamy coconut with warm vanilla. When experiencing this aroma, you can't help but have a smile on your face and feel your toes in the sand.
