

Twenty-Plus Clubs Receive America's Greatest Private Clubs Awards in Q2 2023

America's Greatest Private Clubs recognizes 20+ clubs in Q2 2023 as a follow-up to the program's successful launch earlier this year by Club Managers Group.

PALM BEACH, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, June 28, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- America's Greatest Private Clubs recognizes more than 20 clubs in the second quarter of 2023 as a follow-up to the successful launch of the program earlier this year. All clubs recognized as America's Greatest Private Clubs are highly rated when measured against industry-accepted merit standards, including key rating factors, and on-site and written evaluations: all void of perceived influences based on individual professional staff or board achievements. Year after year these five industry standards are the hallmark of the Club Managers Association of America education and training programs.

"Each of the Q2 private clubs being recognized was personally visited, and meetings were held with the general manager, department heads, line staff, and members. These private clubs were also rated on facility décor and maintenance," explained Craig D. Martin, CCM and founder of Club Managers Group. "America's Greatest Private Clubs award is focused on creating an equitable recognition program for clubs to be evaluated based solely on their merits."

America's Greatest Private Clubs Names 20+ Clubs in Q2 2023 to the List

Brett Morris, General Manager/COO and CMAA's 2022 Club Executive of the Year accepted the award stating, "The entire team at Admiral's Cove is dedicated to the concept of a 'Culture of Excellence,' and proof of our success in achieving this goal is by being recognized as one of America's Greatest Private Clubs. We will continue to strive for excellence in all that we do and look forward to serving our members with the highest level of professionalism and commitment."

These private country clubs were solely rated on the 5 Foundations of Excellence which require sound governance practices by both the board and leadership as they collaborate to support and maintain the brand and mission:

- Facilities provide a distinguished standard of excellence in décor and maintenance.
- Leaders recognized with proven stability in delivering unwavering brand promise to their members.
- Consistent and extraordinary operations service execution.
- Industry recognition for traditions and innovation in setting club industry trends.
- Team culture inspired by pride resulting in a driven and relentless pursuit of excellence and success.

"On behalf of Addison Reserve Country Club, we are elated and proud to receive America's Greatest Private Clubs award from the Club Managers Group. This recognition and industry award reflects the ongoing dedication and commitment by our Board of Governors, Management team, and every employee who fulfills our mission where Excellence is our Standard at Addison Reserve," shared Michael McCarthy, CEO and General Manager.

America's Greatest Private Club evaluators consist of a volunteer panel of current and former private club general managers and other top Leaders from private clubs. The panel is provided with specific criteria, rating parameters, and a detailed evaluation form to aid in the assessment process. These ratings are used to compare qualifying private clubs against their regional peers to create a fair analysis and rating platform focused solely on the 5 Foundations of Excellence.
