Market Overview (2018-2028)

Forecast CAGR (2023-2028): 4 .6%

The growth of global calcium carbide market is driven by the demand from steel manufacturing industry due to its dehydrating and desulphurising properties in metallurgical process. Additionally, demand for acetylene from organic chemicals, resins and plastic industries will in turn propel the growth of the market further. Moreover, the demand from PVC manufacturing and metal cutting and welding sector will aid to the growth in the forecast period.

Calcium Carbide Industry Definition and Major Segments

Calcium carbide is a colourless, inorganic chemical compound by thermal decomposition of calcium cyanamide. It is used in manufacturing process of acetylene and calcium cyanamide. The technical grade calcium carbide ranges from brown to grey and has unpleasant smell.

Based on applications, the market can be segmented into the following:

- Acetylene Gas
- Calcium Cyanamide
- Reducing and Dehydrating Agent
- Desulfurizing and Deoxidizing Agent
- Others

The end-uses for the product can be divided as follows:

- Chemicals
- Metallurgy
- Pharmaceutical
- Food
- Others

Based on the region, the market may be broadly classified as follows:

- North America
- Europe
- Asia Pacific
- Latin America
- Middle East and Africa

Calcium Carbide Market Trends

Regionally, North America and Europe are the largest shareholder in the global calcium carbide market due to vast end use application in the region. Meanwhile, Asia Pacific is expected to be the fastest growing region for calcium carbide. This can be attributed to factors such as increasing steel production in the region. The demand for PVC and steel due to developing infrastructure in growing economies will push the growth further. Moreover, the abundant coal availability in China and India will aid to the growth of global carbide market in the forecast period.

Key Market Players

The major players in the market are Carbide Industries LLC, Denka Company Limited, AlzChem Group AG, Inner Mongolia Baiyanhu Chemical Co.,Ltd., MCB Industries Sdn. Bhd., and a few others. The report covers the market shares, capacities, plant turnarounds, expansions, investments and mergers and acquisitions, among other latest developments of these market players.
