ENTREPRENEURS FORGO 'BOOTSTRAPPING' AND GO STRAIGHT TO A TOP CPA FIRM FOR AI START-UPS IN SAN FRANCISCO

Here is the background on this release. Artificial Intelligence, or AI, is a technology at the forefront of business trends in the Bay Area. Silicon Valley is a region with a reputation for luring the greatest minds in technology to bring success to a new sector. Venture capitalists appear eager to invest in new AI businesses showing long-term promise. This atmosphere provides opportunities for hard-working entrepreneurs ready to get an AI startup off the ground. "Bootstrapping," or balancing all business aspects alone, may not be the right approach for an entrepreneur. Working with a Bay Area CPA with a reputation for helping new Bay Area businesses succeed may be a positive signal to venture capitalists.
