

U.S. DEPT. OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES OFFICE OF NATIONAL SECURITY EXERCISES ITS FIRST YEAR OPTION WITH SEERIST FEDERAL

6th year Seerist is supporting HHS's mission to enhance the health and well-being of all Americans

HERDON, VA., UNITED STATES, June 29, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Seerist Inc., the leading augmented analytics solution for intelligence, threat, and security professionals, announced the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) Office of National Security (ONS) is exercising its first option year as part of its 5-year contract with Seerist Federal, a wholly owned subsidiary of Seerist.

The ONS manages Department-wide programs and provides oversight, policy direction, standards, and performance assessments in the areas of intelligence, counterintelligence, insider threat, cyber threat intelligence, information security, national personnel security, homeland security, and the safeguarding of classified information.

"The renewal is a great testament to the value that HHS is seeing with the Seerist solution," said John Goolgasian, President of Seerist Federal. "We've appreciated the partnership we've had with HHS since 2017 and are conscious that we must continue to earn their support through strong client satisfaction, which is our primary priority."

The initial contract between Seerist Federal (formally GeoSpark Analytics) and the HHS was for five years and provided HHS access to the Seerist solution (formerly Hyperion) and its COVID-19 risk model. At the time, Seerist Federal was also contracted to develop new artificial intelligence (AI) and machine learning (ML) disease outbreak models. The new agreement, started in 2022,
