Shady Blue

Better Without You (From the album My Way)

Shady Blue the Afrocentric Soul Queen, A hardworking British-Nigerian singer who came from an illustrious family but yet had a humble background and fended for herself since age 12. She worked her way through the ladder of life to establish her pedigree as a sonorous musician, mother, professional consultant, entrepreneur and an icon of the African ethos of "Ise logun ise" (hard work is the antidote to poverty and lack).

Shady Blue has been recognised with the following awards: Best Female Singer of the 2009's UK Women in Entertainment and Arts Awards, The Best Female Act (UK- Africa) of Black Entertainment, Film, Fashion, Television, and Arts Awards, and many more!

In 2023 at the EYMA (an event for the celebration of mothers who are excelling at home, in business, at work, and in their community at large), Shady Blue earned the reward of excellence in Creative Arts and the reward of "Mumpreneur" of the Year. These titles represent the appreciation of her community for her dedication, her hard work, and her influence as a striving artist and as a mother.
