The global plant-based milk market will witness a robust CAGR of 15%, valued at $35 billion in 2021, expected to appreciate and reach $123.1 billion by 2030, confirms Strategic Market Research. North America witnessed a sizeable market share of over 40% in 2021. Plant-based milk is a beverage manufactured from plants resembling milk in color. Plant-based milk is beverages obtained from non-dairy sources, flavored and scented with water-based plant extracts. Plant-based milk is used as a milk substitute and frequently has a creamy texture on the tongue. There are roughly 17 different kinds of plant milk; the most popular ones globally are Soy, almond, coconut, and oat. The term "milk-like plant liquid" has been used to describe beverages made from plants since the 13th century.

About Walmart Seller Center:

"We partner with our Marketplace sellers to make millions of products available to you on Walmart.com. This means more brands and wider selections for you. These sellers also accept returns in our stores.

Only qualified businesses can sell on Walmart Marketplace. Our selection process looks at the seller's catalog, operations, and other business information. This helps us ensure they can give the same high-quality experiences to all our Walmart.com customers.

GMSacha Inchi Beverages Mix

Walmart doesn't share your financial information with any seller.

Walmart regularly reviews seller performance. Sellers who give the best service earn a Pro Seller badge on the item page. You can find Sellers names next to the sold and shipped by label." GMSacha Inchi brand wants to be in all the major retail stores in the USA, Canada, and worldwide. For GMSacha Inchi $QEDN was very important to be accepted by Walmart. The requirements are much stricter at Walmart than at Amazon.

"Every year, 90% of American households rely on Walmart for a range of must-buy products from a variety of brands and sellers, both large and small. As America's #1 omni-retailer, Walmart has become the #1 online grocer and second-largest ecommerce platform in the U.S. For brands both large and small selling on Walmart.com and the Walmart app, that means unprecedented opportunities to reach Walmart customers. Our data tells us that Walmart customers want buying suggestions, and our search platform helps them discover products that meet their needs. We also know our customers are open to trying products from our Marketplace sellers. In a recent survey with Walmart customers, most said they feel comfortable purchasing from a seller and more than half said they recently purchased from a Marketplace seller¹. Combine that with customers' growing desire to find low prices — nearly 90% of those surveyed² say they are becoming more cost-conscious and 32% are open to switching brands to save — Marketplace sellers have a unique opportunity to stand out from the competition.

At a time when Walmart is making it easier than ever for sellers to get started on Marketplace, Walmart Connect is making it even easier for our millions of customers to discover sellers."

<https://corporate.walmart.com/newsroom/2022/09/14/how-were-helping-marketplace-sellers-shine-this-holiday-season> Walmart.com currently has around 33,000 sellers, versus Amazon's 2 million sellers.

Walmart Marketplace is less saturated; its sellers receive roughly 13 times more monthly visitors than Amazon sellers. GMSacha Inchi will have more visits and more purchases in Walmart than in Amazon. After having enough sales in Walmart, GMSacha Inchi will start also selling in Amazon.

Since 2012 “healthy choices in the grocery aisle is getting a little bit easier at Walmart. The nation's largest food retailer unveiled their new "Great For You" label today as part of their "healthier food" initiative

So which foods are getting the green label? According to Walmart, "Great For You" will initially appear on select Walmart Great Value and Marketside items, as well as on fresh and packaged fruits and vegetables at Walmart U.S. stores nationwide”

GMSacha Inchi wants to become one of the top Superfood brands in the world. Being accepted at Walmart Marketplace is one of the first steps.

About Walmart

“From our humble beginnings as a small discount retailer in Rogers, Ark., Walmart has opened thousands of stores in the U.S. and expanded internationally. Through innovation, we're creating a seamless experience to let customers shop anytime and anywhere online and in stores. We are creating opportunities and bringing value to customers and communities around the globe. Walmart operates approximately 10,500 stores and clubs in 20 countries and eCommerce websites. We employ 2.1 million associates around the world — nearly 1.6 million in the U.S. alone.” eCommerce

Creating a Seamless Shopping Experience

Walmart has been changing the face of retail since our first store opened in 1962. We've continued to pursue ways to bring technology into retail to offer customers a seamless shopping experience. You can find a ton of items in a Walmart store, but as customers increasingly shop across digital and physical storefronts, we've made it easier for you to find what you need right at your fingertips. With innovations like Curbside Pickup, Mobile Scan & Go and a whole host of apps, we're providing customers with more ways to save time and money while reimagining how digital and physical shopping work together.

As one of the world's largest brick-and-mortar retailers, we are also one of the fastest growing and most dynamic e-commerce organizations. With 90% of the U.S. population living within 10 miles of our stores, we're primed to combine our physical locations with our e-commerce business to offer a level of
