

Solve.Care Named "Most Innovative Healthtech Firm" in the Global Brand Awards 2023

TALLINN, ESTONIA, June 30, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Solve.Care, a leading healthcare technology company that utilizes its blockchain digital healthcare platform to deliver better care, has been honored with the prestigious "Most Innovative Healthtech Firm" award in the Global Brand Awards 2023. This recognition reaffirms Solve.Care's commitment to revolutionizing the healthcare industry through its cutting-edge solutions and unwavering dedication to improving patient outcomes.

Global Brands Magazine (GBM) is one of the largest brand publications. Each year, GBM conducts a series of awards for companies that have stood out among the industry leaders, demonstrating exceptional service and a unique vision. This is the 11th Edition of the Awards. The Global Brand Awards, known for celebrating excellence in various industries worldwide, recognizes organizations that have displayed outstanding innovation, creativity, and market leadership. The "Most Innovative Healthtech Firm" category specifically acknowledges companies that have leveraged technology to disrupt traditional healthcare models and deliver tangible benefits to patients, providers, and payers.

Solve.Care's win in this category underscores its tireless efforts to transform healthcare by harnessing the power of blockchain and other emerging technologies. The company's comprehensive full-stack platform enables coordination, administration, and delivery of healthcare services in a secure and transparent manner, while enhancing care coordination, reducing inefficiencies, and empowering individuals to manage their own health effectively.

Pradeep Goel, CEO of Solve.Care, expressed his gratitude for the recognition, stating, "We are incredibly honored to receive the 'Most Innovative Healthtech Firm' award in the Global Brand Awards 2023. This achievement is a testament to our team's unwavering dedication and relentless pursuit towards transforming healthcare for the better. Solve.Care remains committed to leveraging blockchain and innovative technologies to create a global healthcare system that is accessible, affordable, and efficient for all."

Solve.Care's groundbreaking solutions have gained widespread acclaim, providing a range of benefits across the healthcare ecosystem. Its Care.Wallet application allows users to seamlessly access, manage, and pay for healthcare services, enabling greater patient engagement and improved health outcomes. Additionally, its Care.Labs and Care.Protocol solution revolutionizes care coordination by ensuring all stakeholders, including patients, providers, insurers, and administrators, have access to customizable digital healthcare networks (Care.Networks) with accurate, real-time information.

By leveraging blockchain and other transformative technologies, Solve.Care continues to lead the charge in creating a patient-centric healthcare system that streamlines processes, reduces costs, and improves outcomes.
