Jackee H has taken the Gospel Music Industry by storm with her EP and hit single, "His Everlasting Love"

Jackie H's hit EP recording, "His Everlasting Love," is making huge musical waves around the globe. Between the EP and her single bearing the same title, Jackie H has already accumulated well over 250,000 streams on various internet streaming sites. She has also created a global buzz that has prompted an influx of interviews from radio personalities and television networks in the UK, Barbados, India, Africa, Australia, as well as the USA. The world has taken notice of this amazing artist, and the response has been nothing short of overwhelming!

"Jackee H is an artist whom the world has no choice but to take notice of," says Daniel Musgrove, CEO and founder of Musgrove Music Distribution. "Her particular brand of worship is a "must hear" for the masses, and Musgrove Music Distribution is both excited and proud to partner with her on this next leg of her musical journey. Even with all the success that she's enjoyed thus far, she is only scratching the surface of the extent of her reach and influence around the world."

Regarding her single "His Everlasting Love," Jackee creates a "quiet storm" in the Gospel industry with this song of worship that is turning heads and filling hearts everywhere, with a smooth polished sound and a sincere heart for Jesus. When listening to her sing it, one can easily tell that the lyrics are very personal to her; it's almost as if someone found her in the studio experiencing in a deep worship moment, and they pressed the "record" button to capture the moment. During the time in her life when the song was created, Jackee H was dealing with a transition regarding the direction of her musical endeavors, and she was advised that she needed to come up with a song in a week. She describes what happened as nothing short of a divine visitation from above. She sat down to write and the words started to flow. In no time, she laid down the framework for "His Everlasting Love." The rest, as they say, is history...and with the meteoric rise in popularity that this song has received, history is still in the making.

Whether or not she realized it, it would seem that the course of Jackee H's life groomed her for the direction her life is presently taking. As a young child, this PK (preacher's kid) sang in the sunshine band at church, leading in song and directing the group. She soon grew in her musical skill and aspirations, and in the coming years she would take her gifts beyond the four walls of the church. Her first engagement was at Luther Barnes' Fall Classical Musical in North Carolina, where she organized a team of like-minded musicians and made a defining mark at the event as an up and coming artist.
