It was a fun night of singing, dancing and lots of laughs for all those who attended. In addition, Elite Event Producer Hank Stampfl of Revel Rouge appeared as Pamela’s special guest for the evening who surprised guests with a powerful rendition of a song from The Lion King. This was Pamela’s fourth sold out performance of her one-woman show. Pamela teamed up with local cabaret legend Mark Nadler as her director.

Counting Martha Stewart Living, HBO, Harry Winston, and Chanel as among some of her regular clientele, it was one of the very first places in NYC to offer an organic salad bar. Pamela also worked as the culinary consultant for the Neiman Marcus food catalogue where she created strategic partnerships with well-known chefs and premier food artisans.

The author of the bestselling cookbook Pamela Morgan's Flavors (published by Viking Penguin), Pamela has accrued many years of experience catering a variety of affairs, including notable charity events, exclusive dinner parties and weddings.
