successful entrepreneurs success stories dating back to 2011. The business was started by serial entrepreneur Adam Nager in his pursuit of providing real life, tried and executed solutions to entrepreneurs looking to start their own business in the recession resistant field of medical billing. After experiencing his own struggles in building his own business to six figures, he figured out the marketing, sales process, and operational management tools needed to successfully scales his business into a nationally recognized player in the lucrative space of medical billing. Nager's focus is on providing knowledge culminating over the past 15 plus years in owning his own business, coaching, and leadership guidance to those who participate in his program. Nager still owns and runs his own billing company so he has a keen ability to share what is working in the market when and as it shifts.
