

MARYJO CLARK, MS Ed.: GOODBYE TO CONFLICT AND HELLO TO HARMONY

Maryjo Clark pens a book for parents and educators who want to help their children build strong relationships, communicate clearly, and achieve their goals.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, July 5, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In "Teacher Teacher: Problem Solving Without Bullying," readers will follow two best friends as they navigate through various conflicts and learn how to express their feelings and work through problems in a constructive way. Through the guidance of the author, Maryjo Clark, readers will be introduced to practical problem-solving sentences and techniques that can be applied to real-life situations.

Teacher Teacher: Problem Solving Without Bullying

With her relatable scenarios and lovable characters, Maryjo Clark draws on her expertise to teach readers how to communicate, listen actively, and find mutually beneficial solutions to conflicts. From playground disagreements to sibling rivalries, "Teacher Teacher: Problem Solving Without Bullying" has everyone's back! Everyone will see firsthand the transformative power of clear communication and the positive impact it can have on their relationships and lives.

But that is not all! This book will also promote empathy, kindness, and understanding among youngsters. Children will learn the importance of respecting others' feelings, viewpoints and how to find solutions that benefit everyone involved. They'll be inspired to communicate effectively and build stronger, more positive relationships with their peers, family, and teachers. These teachings are based on the theories of Dr. Carl Rogers.
