"We are thrilled to host this fundraiser for the sixth year. This is a fun event with the goal of raising resources and awareness to restore and preserve the 111-year-old historic Colored School. Our goal is to transform the school into a state-of-the arts museum and cultural center. Bring your lawn chairs or blankets, sit back, and enjoy the amazing jazz music, shopping at phenomenal craft vendors, sampling a variety of wines, signature cocktails, and food prepared by awesome vendors; all while taking in the majestic views of the Susquehanna River--it doesn't get any better than that,” said Patricia Cole, President of the Havre de Grace Colored School Museum & Cultural Center, Inc.
