Born in the gritty city of Stockton, CA on July 4th, Twenty3Ways has emerged as a mature, laidback, and reserved artist shaped by his early life experiences. Surprisingly, his favorite genre of music is country, which influences the wide variety of melodic tones and styles in his catalog.

At the age of 8, Twenty3wayz recorded his first track called "Elementary" at a friend's home studio along with his cousin. The excitement and positive feedback he received from sharing his music with others ignited his passion for pursuing music professionally.

In 2020, he gained local buzz after releasing the music video for his hit song "3:41", which was dedicated to a close friend that passed away. He followed up with the hit record "Halo," further solidifying his position as a prominent artist from the 209 area code. Twenty3 recently opened for Lil Boosie at the prestigious Ace of Spades club in Sacramento, CA, showcasing his talent and potential as an artist on the rise.

Twenty3wayz is proving his growth as an artist and his dedication to pursuing his passion. Stay tuned for more catchy songs and exciting performances alongside major artists from Twenty3wayz coming soon.
