

The Annual Best of Georgia Awards Voting Is Underway

Businesses can still get on the ballot with a self-nomination and get a free Best of Georgia Campaign Kit

GEORGIA, USA, July 8, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Georgia Business Journal is once again proud host their annual Best of Georgia Awards. This year's awards recognize businesses from all industries for their successes and impact on their communities. From bakers to bankers, contractors to accountants, the awards honor companies that have made a difference in their local area.

The voting process is simple and easy: friends, fans and clients can vote for their favorite businesses once per day at gbj.com/best-of-vote! Winners will be featured in the Annual Print Edition, The Digital Edition, plus on social media and in the GBJ.com Newsletter.

Businesses who are not yet on the ballot still have time to get in the running. They can visit <https://gbj.com/join> to create a free listing and automatically be put on the Best of Georgia Ballot.

This year's awards are an exciting opportunity for businesses to showcase what makes them unique and stand out from the competition. "We're thrilled to kick off this year's Best of Georgia Awards," said GBJ CEO David Greer. "These awards recognize organizations who provide excellence in customer service, innovation and dedication to our community."

The Best of Georgia Awards celebrates businesses that have gone above and beyond when it comes to providing quality products or services, leading with integrity, and making a positive impact on their customers' lives. These awards are also an excellent way for businesses to gain
