

The Nurses Wall Creator Pamela Nye to Be a Guest "Creative" on July 10 "Read My Lips" LIVE Radio & Live-Streaming Video

Read My Lips Broadcast offers live, unscripted Q&A sessions that create fun, often surprising conversations with creative people known for making a difference.

MALIBU, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, July 9, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Nurses Wall creator, Pamela Jane Nye, is scheduled to be one of three guest panel "Creatives" on akaRadioRed's "Read My Lips" LIVE "Cool Conversations with Creatives" global radio broadcast on Monday, July 10, 2023.

Pamela Jane Nye, Founder/CEO/Exec. Director of Operation Scrubs, Inc. nonprofit

Noteworthy, in February of 2019, Nye was working as a 3-decade career clinical nurse specialist, stroke coordinator, and system-wide nurse education mentor at UCLA Medical Center. And one might argue that one example of Nye's creativity started by shocking her annual performance/bonus evaluators by using the review opportunity to tender her dream career resignation.

I believe this is a great opportunity to talk about my creative experiences, especially having created an infinite online portal for people to share their nurse-appreciative thank-you messages.”

RN/CNS/CEO of Scrubs, Inc.*

Ninety days later, Nye had created and became the CEO/Executive Director of Operation Scrubs, Inc. (OSi) -- a 501(c)(3) nonprofit charitable organization that provides tuition-free innovative, accredited continuing nurse education for licensed nurses and accredited hospitals; advanced nursing education scholarships for working nurses; and global positive nurse image advocacy.

Concurrently, Nye's May 6, 2019, inaugural Operation Scrubs mission "broke the status quo nurse education venue mold" with a "nurses only" red carpet event held aboard FantaSea One, a 4-deck megayacht. In addition to providing innovative symposium courses, A-list quality instructors, and catered buffet meals, the event ended with a 2-hour sunset harbor cruise that included entertainment, dancing, complimentary beverages, and sponsor-provided swag gifts for all nurse attendees.

Nye's 2020 encore performance involved creating The Nurses Wall as a 'take back weapon' to reclaim the "Year of the Nurse" celebration stolen by Covid-19. A sponsor's withdrawal of contractually obligated funding delayed the official take-back celebration until May 12, 2023, and was held in conjunction with International Nurses Day, highlighting the work of clinical nurse specialists and the 203rd annual birthday celebration of nurse legend Florence Nightingale.

Regarding her Read My Lips Radio Broadcast invitation, Nye said she was excited stating, "I believe this is a great opportunity to talk about my creative experiences, especially having created an infinite online portal for people to share their nurse-appreciative thank-you messages."

Read My Lips Radio producer and host is Bonnie D. Graham (akaRadioRed) who "loves her live, unscripted conversations with smart, savvy, creative people ... wants to know what makes them tick, where they find their inspiration, when creativity became their passion, and how their creative process can inspire the rest of us to think out-of-the-box. And," she emphasizes, her "Read My Lips Radio Broadcast are never a scripted yada-yada Question and Answer session, promising a fun conversation that can take surprising turns."
