

We Level Up California Treatment Center Awarded CARF Accreditation for High-Quality Behavioral Health Rehab Treatment

The We Level Up California treatment center is proud to announce it has been awarded CARF accreditation as a high-quality patient care rehab facility.

LAKE ELSINORE, CALIFORNIA, USA, July 10, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- We Level Up's California treatment facility has been honored with the prestigious CARF accreditation for its rehabilitation programs. Following a comprehensive assessment of credentials and treatment methods, the We Level Up California rehab center has met all the criteria to be recognized as a CARF Certified treatment center. Along with the prior awarded Joint Commission Accreditation, the California treatment center continues to exhibit the highest levels of care for professional behavioral health therapy programs.

We Level Up California Treatment Center has been awarded CARF Accreditation in addition to its Joint Commission Accreditation.

The We Level Up behavioral health treatment center network takes great pride in receiving multiple accreditations for its rehab facilities. In addition to the esteemed Joint Commission's Gold Seal of Approval award, the network has recently obtained the latest CARF accreditation. We are delighted that We Level Up's California treatment facility has achieved its inaugural CARF certification, further reinforcing our commitment to providing top-quality care.

The CARF accreditation decision represents the pinnacle of certification for treatment centers, signifying We Level Up's unwavering dedication to delivering exceptional care. The newest accreditation is a further testament to our staff's commitment and our facilities' adherence to the rigorous standards required to achieve CARF accreditation.

What is a CARF Certification?

Only the most exceptional treatment facilities, renowned for providing the highest level of care, are eligible to attain the esteemed CARF Accreditation certification. The We Level Up California behavioral treatment center underwent a meticulous evaluation to earn its CARF treatment center accreditation. Our dedicated staff showcased their unwavering commitment to delivering good medical treatment and services during an extensive on-site review conducted by a team of CARF certification surveyors.

CARF certification is a distinguished symbol of excellence and aids in distinguishing accredited programs from those not. It assures patients and their families that the selected program adheres to rigorous standards of care, providing them with peace of mind.

Through a consultative accreditation process and ongoing improvement services, CARF, an independent nonprofit accrediting body, is devoted to enhancing the lives of the individuals they serve. Their mission is to promote service quality, value, and optimal outcomes, ensuring the highest standard of care.

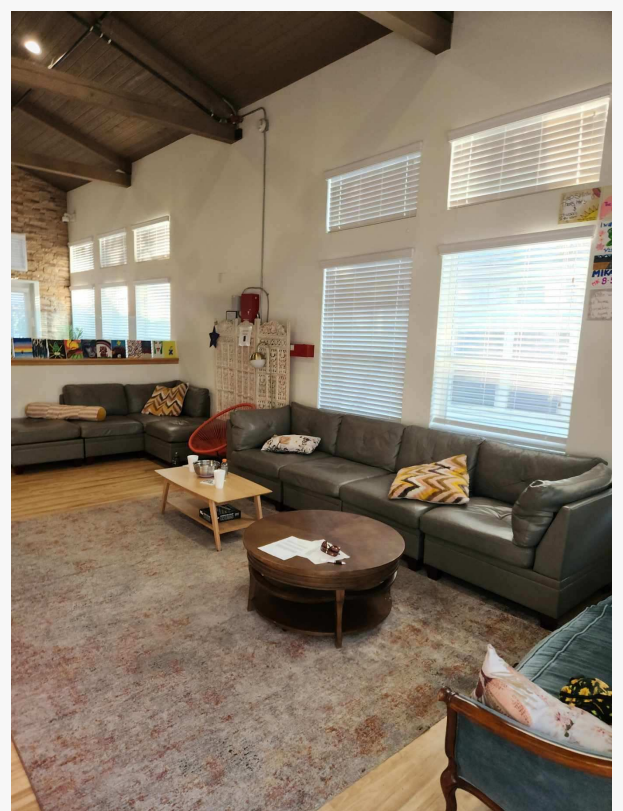

The We Level Up team is Proud to Meet CARF Accreditation ASAM Level Of High-Quality Care Standards.

“

The CARF certification shows how dedicated We Level Up is to providing more patients with sound evidence-based, highly effective treatment options.”

Alexandra Krotkevich, We Level Up treatment centers network CEO

To attain CARF Accreditation at this level, the We Level Up California behavioral health treatment program must demonstrate its compliance with specific requirements. These requirements encompass various aspects such as the quality and effectiveness of services, qualifications, and training of staff, involvement of patients and families in treatment planning, utilization of evidence-based practices, utilization of outcome measurement data, and an unwavering commitment to continuous quality improvement.

The We Level Up California rehabilitation center has received CARF accreditation. Awarded the highest patient care facility ranking with a 3.7 ASAM award demonstrates the renowned clinical therapies available to patients.

Earning the highest level of accreditation at the ASAM Level of Care 3.7 or higher is a testament to the We Level Up California rehabilitation center adherence to the most rigorous standards of care and treatment for individuals with substance use disorders. CARF accreditation is widely recognized as a symbol of excellence in substance abuse treatment, signifying the program's commitment to delivering top-quality care.
