

History and Gastronomy in Sicily by Franco Campo

TOMAH, WISCONSIN, USA, July 10, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- This book is beautifully illustrated with paintings of Sicilian Artist Giovanni Aquila to support the research of local cuisine and historical events which explain the different foreign domination that has shaped and influenced our Sicilian culture over the years.

The research is divided into three chapters:

Chapter One: MISERIA E NOBILTA.

The difference between the rich and poor cuisine, staple foods in the pheasant hyaline cuisine, and the effects of French cuisine in the Kingdom of Two Sicilies.

CHAPTER TWO: LA NOSTRA STORIA

Chronicle events of Sicily and the Neapolitan kingdom in the XIX century. The difficulties of assimilation between North and South Italy. Description of foods related to historical events and the sources of Sicilian cuisine, from ancient to modern times.

CHAPTER 111: LA MIA STORIA:

The last chapter is dedicated to the recollection of foods of my own city and memories of events in the time of my youth.
