revered "Rodizio" style of service, where succulent fire-grilled meats are expertly carved right at their table, paired with a vast assortment of traditional sides and specialty salads, ensuring every bite offers a rich and unforgettable taste of Brazil.

"We are profoundly thrilled to bring Brazil's vibrant flavors and essence to the diverse community of Kissimmee," shared Ricardo Oliveira, Co-Founder of Adega Gaucha. "Our dedicated team has crafted a dining experience that pays tribute to Brazil's rich culinary tradition and ensures an unmatched level of service. Paired with a welcoming ambiance, we aim to make every guest feel instantly at ease, creating memorable and magical moments."

The new location, spanning almost 9,000 sq ft and accommodating around 250 seats, will boast a modern and inviting atmosphere. Meticulously crafted to offer a welcoming environment and with attentive service at its core, guests are ensured an indelible and delightful dining experience that captures the heart and soul of Brazilian cuisine.

The operators have confidently chosen Valmor de Almeida as the General Manager and a proprietor for the new location, granting him ownership stakes in the business. With his extensive experience and dedication, Valmor will oversee daily operations and ensure that the restaurant maintains the exceptional standards and experiences for which Adega Gaucha is renowned.
