

Lucas Blantford Racing Team Announces the Second Quarter Results of 2023 Under the Sponsorship of Elite Capital & Co.

LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, July 11, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mr. Adrian Blantford, Principal Manager, Lucas Blantford Racing Team, announced today the second quarter results for 2023 of Elite Capital & Co.'s driver Lucas Blantford, who returned to Shenvington in preparation for this year's Super Prix and won 1st Place.

"Lucas makes a winning comeback after his horrendous accident. A fantastic return to a track Lucas hasn't been to since September 2022 and the first time is his new category," Adrian Blantford said.

Since Lucas's 70 mph accident in October 2022, where Lucas broke both his wrists, damaged knee ligaments, and suffered severe concussion, he has gone through an extensive rehabilitation programme to regain strength and also help to psychologically both from the accident and issues after. For Lucas's 1st race he went back to the track where the accident happened and won 1st Place, and since then Lucas qualified in the top 10 of the British Kart Championships, which sees the best 80 drivers in the UK, and has also joined the worldwide brand of SODI Kart Racing.

Practice went well in the new Sodi chassis and Lucas soon got to grips with the track and the new racing class he is now in.

grid the forecast rain eventually came and after a quick tyre change Lucas started in P24 and managed to cross the line in P6 but with a unfortunate nose cone penalty was classified in P10.

“This was a fantastic display of how mature Lucas is becoming as a driver and showing the ability he has in any class and chassis he moves to,” Adrian Blantford said.

That gave Lucas a pole for the final and was really a straight forward light to flag drive, maintaining a good distance from the pack.

Elite Capital & Co.’s driver Lucas Blantford, added, “It was great to come to Sherington and I’m looking forward to the Super Prix, this time we will have the full team support.”
