

New Release in July: Vibrant's Business Law Essentials is a handy manual for founders and professionals

Komal Shah's two decades of experience equips her to explain complex business laws eloquently in this book

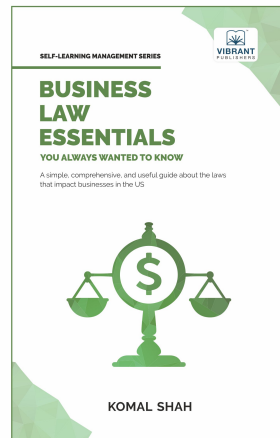

BROOMFIELD, COLORADO, UNITED STATES, July 11, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Entrepreneurs and professionals who want to get a concise overview of the important laws that govern businesses in the US can now pick up Business Law Essentials You Always Wanted To Know by Komal Shah. This book releases today.

Without a legal background, it is challenging for many entrepreneurs and professionals to understand and adhere to the laws that affect their businesses. Recognizing this as an issue, Komal Shah ventured to write a book that would not only be a concise version of the important business laws but also use lucid language. Komal Shah is the co-founder of LawSikho and an experienced legal professional for over 20 years. She has helped numerous startups in the US, Australia, India, UAE, and Singapore with entity formation in the US, flipping, acquisitions, corporate structuring, and investment transactions.

Upon asking her the reason behind writing the book, she replied, "Availing specialized legal services is expensive and finding reliable legal services is difficult. I have written Business Law Essentials with the aim to provide an overview of the laws that impact businesses and the laws that founders or professionals may need to resort to while dealing with other persons or companies."

In the introductory chapter, the book discusses the US Constitution and its impact on the different types of legal systems prevalent in the country. Further, how to choose the correct
