Automotive Interiors Market

Growing need to improve fuel efficiency due to rising crude oil prices and increasing focus on well-being of drivers drive the growth of the global automotive interiors market. In addition, technological advancements and high demand for luxurious vehicles supplement the market growth. However, ongoing trade war & surge in automotive import tariffs and increase in raw-material prices hamper the market growth. On the contrary, untapped developing markets in Africa and Asia and advancements in in-vehicle infotainment are expected to create lucrative opportunities for the market players in future.
