Diamonds Do Good® Entrepreneurship Grant

The Diamonds Do Good® Entrepreneurship Grant is known for supporting outstanding entrepreneurs. The grant provides financial support ranging from $5,000 up to $20,000, enabling the winners to scale their businesses and amplify their positive impact on society. As part of the design and the impact of the Grant, the Finalists go through a development process that includes completing the UPG Biashara Learning Journey through which they acquire new skills and sharpen existing ones. After the Grant, they also benefit from the UPG Biashara Action Journey that includes, ongoing exposure, skills acquisition, mentorship and more.

"The winners of the Diamonds Do Good® Entrepreneurship Grant exemplify the spirit of entrepreneurship and the power of innovative ideas to create positive change. They have demonstrated exceptional dedication, creativity, and a deep commitment to entrepreneurship," said Nancy Orem Lyman, Executive Director, Diamonds Do Good.

The Three Finalists come from diverse backgrounds and they are UPG Biashara Entrepreneurs. They each demonstrated exceptional vision, creativity and unwavering determination. And their qualities have made them exceptional candidates for the prestigious Diamonds Do Good® Entrepreneurship Grant.

They are:

Tshepo Tselayakgosi owns Innovative Instigation Enterprise, a business development firm offering consulting, training, collaborative marketing campaigns, content creation, events, and business exchange programs. They also sell books and digital products to support their services. Tselayakgosi plans to develop a flexible co-working space with office facilities, meeting rooms, and eCommerce support. They have participated in notable events like the Superlead Summit 2022 and collaborated on the book "Girl, Boss Up & Lead" to enhance visibility and generate connections.

ITS TIME TO MEET THE WINNERS OF DIAMONDS DO GOOD® ENTREPRENEURSHIP GRANT

Meet The Winners of Diamonds Do Good Grant®

Balekane Ngakane's business idea involves manufacturing eco-charcoal briquettes using organic waste like groundnut shells, corn stalks, and sawdust.

Nancy Orem Lyman, Executive Director, Diamonds Do Good

These briquettes provide affordable and clean energy, burning longer and hotter than regular charcoal. They are smoke-free, emit no harmful substances, and contribute to reducing carbon emissions. The eco stoves they fuel are insulated for safety, minimize fire risks, and create a hygienic environment by reducing charcoal dust.

Richard Seletlo is developing a Health Management App that prioritizes patient privacy and convenience. The app offers encrypted online medical records, easy appointment booking, reminders, and medication schedules. Users can locate healthcare providers and access their medical records securely. The app empowers patients to manage and share their health information effectively, revolutionizing healthcare in Botswana.

This year the 20 Finalists come from 6 countries: Botswana, India, Namibia, Sierra Leone, South Africa and Tanzania. Which countries will be represented among the winners? And which country will win the grand prize? In 2022 the honour of the grand prize went to Botswana with UPG Biashara Entrepreneur Mirriam Margret Mothibe of I99 Farms securing USD 20,000.

In 2023 each of the 20 Finalists demonstrated remarkable resilience and determination to reach the final stage of the Diamonds Do Good® Entrepreneurship Grant. Their businesses represent diverse industries including: agriculture, education, electronics, energy, environment / nature, events, health and health care, jewelry, manufacturing, marketing, real estate and more. And their creative approaches to business solutions as well as their dedication has propelled them forward as outstanding contenders for the Diamonds Do Good® Entrepreneurship Grant 2023.

Here are the Finalists representing 6 countries, they are also visible on this brief video: <https://youtu.be/91EiXkKgVnw>

What has happened so far? The 20 finalists advanced to the ultimate stage of the process: a "Shark Tank" format. This entailed presenting to an experienced panel, in front of a live audience. During these sessions, the UPG Biashara entrepreneurs showcased their ideas, businesses, and distinct value propositions. Now the next step is the announcement of the winners and with 10 winners expected, the Finalists have a chance of winning that is about 50%.

When is the announcement? The announcement of the winners takes place on 12 July 2023 from 3:30pm to 5pm CEST (9:30am to 11am EST). And it is possible for those passionate about entrepreneurship to witness the announcement of the winners of the Diamonds Do Good® Entrepreneurship Grant 2023. While places last, those interested can RSVP here: <https://upglive.org/upgbiashara-events-RSVP>. The event brings together people passionate about entrepreneurship including industry leaders, investors, and supporters who are eager to witness the next generation of entrepreneurial success stories.

And so who will win? "The Finalists for the Diamonds Do Good® Entrepreneurship Grant are outstanding and each of them is a winner! Once the announcement is made, we will be happy and sad at the same time. And we will remain united in the understanding that when any of them wins, then we are all winning. I invite you to keep an eye on all of these entrepreneurs,” said Yemi Babington-Ashaye, President, United People Global.
