Diamonds Do Good® Entrepreneurship Grant

The Diamonds Do Good® Entrepreneurship Grant is known for supporting outstanding entrepreneurs. The grant provides financial support ranging from $5,000 up to $20,000, enabling the winners to scale their businesses and amplify their positive impact on society. As part of the design and the impact of the Grant, the Finalists go through a development process that includes completing the UPG Biashara Learning Journey through which they acquire new skills and sharpen existing ones. After the Grant, they also benefit from the UPG Biashara Action Journey that includes, ongoing exposure, skills acquisition, mentorship and more.

"The winners of the Diamonds Do Good® Entrepreneurship Grant exemplify the spirit of entrepreneurship and the power of innovative ideas to create positive change. They have demonstrated exceptional dedication, creativity, and a deep commitment to entrepreneurship," said Nancy Orem Lyman, Executive Director, Diamonds Do Good.

The Four Finalists are come from diverse backgrounds and they are UPG Biashara Entrepreneurs. They each demonstrated exceptional vision, creativity and unwavering determination. And their qualities have made them exceptional candidates for the prestigious Diamonds Do Good® Entrepreneurship Grant. They are:

Abdalah Nyambi's Preyo Company Ltd. operates as a circular economy-driven enterprise, encompassing various endeavors such as plastic recycling, research and development, and consultancy services. Its primary focus is on adopting environmentally friendly production techniques and exploring innovative technologies that promote sustainability. At present, PREYO company utilizes recycled plastics sourced from external companies to manufacture automobile bushings.

However, it has future plans to incorporate the entire plastic recycling process internally, which involves collection, sorting, shredding, hot washing, drying, and palletizing. By undertaking these steps, the company aims to enhance cost-effectiveness and profitability while utilizing eco-friendly and advanced technologies. The David Rwegoshora's business, ELI GREEN GOLD FARM ENTERPRISE (EGGFE), focuses on integrating the Cassava Value Chain, linking Cassava Production and Marketing. They specialize in producing High-Quality Cassava Flour (HQCF) and have plans to expand their product range to include cassava starch, biscuits, and chapati. They manufacture HQCF with strict hygiene standards and provide support to smallholder farmers by supplying them with organic fertilizers and certified drought-tolerant, disease-resistant, high-yielding seeds. Their training programs cover GAPs for cassava quality seed farming, including crop management, harvesting, storage, processing, and agroforestry techniques. They promote climate resilience measures like rainwater harvesting and emphasize the benefits of drought-tolerant cassava quality seed farming. They also source dried cassava from trained smallholder farmers, process it, and sell premium cassava flour to customers.
