

Humanity First USA Duluth Food Pantry Receives Large Donation from The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

Food and supplies from The Church of Jesus Christ to help feed families every week

CHANTILLY, VA, UNITED STATES, July 12, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Humanity First, USA, a humanitarian non-profit organization established to promote and safeguard human life and dignity in the United States and abroad, is very pleased to announce a significant donation from The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints to the Duluth Food Pantry to help families put food on the table.

The Humanity First USA Duluth Food Pantry in Duluth, Georgia, will receive non-perishable food and personal care items from The Church of Jesus Christ. Food donations will become part of local families' weekly boxes depending on the Duluth Food Pantry. Personal care items will be available at a Dignity Table at the pantry. Families can select whatever they need when they come for food.

"We are grateful to The Church of Jesus Christ for this generous partnership. Working families in the Duluth area still struggle to make ends meet. The Duluth Food Pantry is a safe and reliable source of help. Now we will be able to offer people
