“

I was going to talk about how poignant the show is for today, or about Impending turmoil, but then I realized one of these artists is a maniac with a bomb!”

Director and Curator, Christopher Freeman

Experience the exhibition where art and chaos intertwine to create an unprecedented spectacle. Based on 18 Real Artists living in a time of natural disaster, social rage, and calamity, people will bear witness to pandemonium like never before. August 5th will be the date to remember as one of the greatest phenomenon in living history.

Executive Curator, Christopher Freeman, exclaims, “I was going to talk about how poignant the show is for today, or about Impending turmoil, but then I realized one of these artists is a maniac with a bomb! You must see this exhibition by September 4th, before it self destructs!”

Rated C for Conflict

About the Gallery:
