PR

For Mrs. America 2023, Chaunce is supporting the national charity Victoria's Voice Foundation. She resonates deeply with their mission, as a child of a recovering addict, herself.

She also considers herself as a “nurse pain champion”, recently spearheading an incentive to ensure each patient receiving opioids have access to, and receives a Naloxone pen with their opioid prescriptions at Brooke Army Medical Center. Her work in the field is invaluable; as Chief Nursing Instructor at Lincoln Technical Institute she also proudly helps educate Pennsylvania's Licensed Practical Nurses of tomorrow.
