

National Life's Do Good Fest® Moves to Livestream Fundraiser for Vermont Disaster Recovery

Watch Plain White T's, lovelytheband, Fastball, All Night Boogie Band and Donate

MONTPELIER, VERMONT, USA, July 13, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In response to this week's catastrophic flooding, National Life Group's Do Good Fest® has shifted into a livestreamed event and global fundraiser to support rebuilding Vermont, viewable on Saturday, July 15 from 6 – 9 p.m.

With the historic devastation Vermont is experiencing, it is National Life's privilege to announce that we are moving Do Good Fest to an acoustic performance that will be livestreamed so that viewers across Vermont, the nation and globally can experience the good vibes and participate in supporting the rebuilding of Vermont through online donations.

Partnering with Star 92.9, special guests will join headliner two-time Grammy-nominated American Rock Band Plain White T's, Fastball, lovelytheband and Vermont favorite, All Night Boogie Band.

"We hope that friends, family, and fans across the nation will join us virtually on Saturday to celebrate Vermont to help us bring back Vermont stronger than before." National Life Group Chairman, CEO and President Mehran Assadi said.

National Life will miss having concert attendees on campus celebrating with us, but right now the community needs support. Ticketholders who made donations to Branches of Hope can request a refund or their donation will be directed to the Vermont Community Foundation's VT

Flood Response & Recovery Fund
