

Breaking Barriers & Celebrating Excellence: Industry Connex 102 Honors Latinos & Ignites The Future of Entertainment

Witness a Powerful Display of Unity & Empowerment as Showbiz Icons Embark on a Two-Hour Discussion & Celebration on Cultural Representation & Hollywood Splendor

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, July 13, 2023

/EINPresswire.com/ -- In an extraordinary celebration of talent and diversity, Industry Connex 102, the illustrious red carpet affair, gathered Hollywood's finest for an exclusive and inclusive panel, igniting a wave of inspiration that will shape the next generation of entertainment. Held at the renown Los Angeles Film School, this star-studded event was a remarkable dedication to elevating the contributions and voices of Latinos within the entertainment landscape.

Letty Peniche, Julio Macias, Jose Encarnacion Zepeda, Diego Tinoco and Anthony Bless.

From passion to power, the event kicked off with an alluring red carpet beckoned with industry luminaries as the event list roster featured special guests including Actor Mo Hines renown for his work on Hulu's "The Fool;" Actor David Bianchi from BET+'s "Ruthless" and the sci-thriller TV series "RZR;" Actress Marilyn Simon from BET+'s "All the Queen's Men;" Actress Vanessa Vasquez known for the romance/comedy film "Divorce Bait;" TV Personality Deshay Jones from VH1's Black Ink Crew Los Angeles; Grammy-Nominated Producer and Musical Director Solano; Music Artist Fachento Boss; and more (see photos). A dynamic live mariachi band captivated viewers and set the stage for a powerful series of panel discussions, delving into the profound journeys of self-discovery and professional growth experienced by esteemed Hispanic veterans and emerging stars of Hollywood.

"Your achievements are not meant to be held onto, but to be shared," says celebrated actor and panelist Emilio Rivera, known for his recent unforgettable role in Hulu/Disney+'s "Flamin' Hot." "We acquire what we need, and then we pass it forward. So, when you reach your destination, remember to return and empower others by giving back."

This sentiment underscores the event's commitment to fostering diversity, empowerment, and excellence. Other esteemed actors Julio Macias, Anthony Bless, and Diego Tinoco, along with accomplished professional boxer Jose Encarnacion Zepeda, authentically shared powerful wisdom and insights, inspiring individuals to surpass boundaries and courageously pursue their dreams in the world of entertainment. This engaging dialogue offered a unique glimpse into their stories of transformation that have shaped their remarkable careers.

Adding to the festivities, the event featured the crowd favorite social photo booth fostering connections and sealing lasting memories; the mouthwatering delights of Hippos Tacos; the authentic flavors of Jarritos (known as the official drink of tacos); memorable souvenir prizes; and more that commemorated the essence of Hispanic cuisine, culture and creativity.
