Certifications, a renowned global provider of certified executive programs and conferences, is thrilled to announce the launch of the Certified Supply Chain Demand Planning & Forecasting Professional (CSCD™) program. Developed in collaboration with industry experts and thought leaders, this groundbreaking program aims to equip professionals with the knowledge and skills required to excel in supply chain demand planning and forecasting, driving efficiency, and optimizing operations.

The CSCD™ program offers a comprehensive curriculum that covers a wide range of essential topics, including demand planning process, forecasting techniques, demand management, collaboration, demand planning tools and technology, forecasting accuracy, demand planning in different industries, performance metrics, and reporting. Participants will also delve into inventory planning, global demand planning, supply chain risk management, and more, gaining practical insights through real-world case studies and interactive exercises.

"With the increasing complexity of global supply chains and the need for accurate demand forecasting, supply chain professionals must possess the expertise to navigate the challenges and drive strategic decision-making." said Bok Yan Lo, Managing Director of the Chartered Institute of Professional Certifications. "The CSCD™ program fills this critical knowledge gap by providing professionals with the necessary tools and techniques to optimize demand planning and forecasting processes."

Fully accredited by the Chartered Institute of Professional Certifications, the CSCD™ program offers flexible learning options, including on-demand self-paced online modules and live instructor-led classes, allowing professionals to choose a format that suits their schedule and preferences.

Upon successful completion of the CSCD™ program, participants will be awarded the Certified Supply Chain Demand Planning & Forecasting Professional (CSCD™) designation, a globally recognized credential that sets them apart in the industry. This esteemed certification is exclusively granted to professionals who have demonstrated their mastery of supply chain demand planning and forecasting through our accredited program. The CSCD™ program has also received independent certification and accreditation by CPD, ensuring adherence to the highest standards of Continuing Professional Development principles.
