Acquisition Expands Unity FI Solutions' Product Portfolio and Establishes Its Position as a Premier Provider of Payment Servicing Solutions

Unity FI Solutions, a trusted provider of tailored payment processing solutions, has acquired Payment Automation Network Inc. (PAN), a privately owned company based in Medford, Oregon. PAN stands out as a prominent nationwide leader in providing compliant software for payment processing in the Student Loan & Debt Industries. With a strong commitment to compliance, PAN offers full escrow services that provide a secure environment for funds while adhering to consumer debt protection regulations. By securely holding customer funds in their escrow/trust account, PAN ensures the utmost security and peace of mind until the desired services are successfully rendered.

Student debt significantly impacts the economy, hindering consumer spending, stifling entrepreneurship, and reducing job opportunities, while also lowering homeownership rates and exacerbating financial vulnerabilities during economic downturns. In addressing these challenges, Payment Automation Network (PAN) plays a crucial role through its comprehensive and compliant processing services. PAN enables businesses in the Student Loan & Debt Industries to effectively manage student loan and debt, contributing to improved economic conditions, increased spending power, and overall financial stability.

Recognizing the significant impact of student debt on the economy, Unity FI Solutions' acquisition of Payment Automation Network (PAN) assumes even greater importance. PAN, Unity FI Solutions guides PAN in providing tailored, compliant processing servicing solutions for the Student Loan & Debt Industries, addressing challenges in payment collections and disbursements.

under the stewardship of Unity FI Solutions, provides comprehensive & compliant processing servicing solutions tailored to the Student Loan & Debt Industries, alleviating the frustrations associated with payment collections and disbursements. Through their secure and efficient fund collection and distribution services, PAN enables businesses in these industries to effectively manage student loan and debt, contributing to improved economic conditions, increased spending power, and overall financial stability.

By incorporating PAN's expertise in compliance-centric software, this strategic merger empowers Unity FI Solutions with advanced technology, enabling businesses to streamline fund collection and disbursement processes. The integration of PAN's software platform's compliance processing capabilities in various sectors such as Student Loan & Debt Industries, Credit Servicing & Repair, Debt Validation, Tax Resolution Servicing, Timeshare Cancellation, Software Vendor Sales and Support, and Rental Collection Services, further solidifies Unity FI Solutions' market position, offering a holistic range of payment solutions.
