Topping charts in 28 categories across four countries, this captivating anthology has propelled Bonnie Harris and 24 other extraordinary women to officially become Best-Selling authors.

Bonnie Harris chose to contribute her empowering story to 'Unstoppable' to empower and uplift others who face challenges. After dedicating over 20 years to a company, Bonnie experienced the sudden loss of her job. Rather than falling into depression and negativity, she embraced the opportunity to reinvent herself. With resilience and an unyielding spirit, Bonnie embarked on a new journey as an entrepreneur, starting her own business from scratch despite having no prior experience in the field. Over 16 years, she defied challenges and successfully established her company, inspiring those around her.

During this transformative period, Bonnie faced an even greater challenge – a battle with liver cancer. Juggling the responsibilities of raising her young boys and running a traditional business, Bonnie's unwavering determination and unbreakable spirit allowed her to persevere. Emerging victorious against cancer, she continued to thrive personally and professionally.

Entering her 50s, Bonnie recognized it as a pivotal moment in her life where she had a choice: to believe it was too late to pursue her dreams or to get serious and force herself into action. She realized that at 50, there is ample time to fulfill her passions and accomplish great things. This realization catalyzed her to rebuild her life, create a lasting legacy, and inspire others through her remarkable journey.

Becoming an author for "Unstoppable" allowed Bonnie to connect with a wider audience and offer a beacon of hope to those facing their own struggles. Her story demonstrates that obstacles and age should never hinder one's ability to pursue their dreams and make a lasting impact.

To benefit from Bonnie Harris's empowering message and embark on their own transformative journeys, women are encouraged to explore her comprehensive program.

Bonnie's mission as a Global Entrepreneur and Business Mentor is to help thousands of women find fulfillment, purpose, and a sense of belonging.
