13 Best Places to Retire in the Pacific Northwest

“

The Pacific Northwest offers everything a retiree could ever want. This list represents the best of the best.”

John Brady, President of Topretirements.com

Here is the Topretirements.com list of some really great places to retire in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, and British Columbia.

1. Bandon, OR. On the beautiful OR coast with some of the best golf in the country.
2. Sequim, WA. Called the “Blue Hole” because of its unusually blue skies

3. Eugene, WA. A college town with one of the most extensive system of bike trails in the country.

4. Bend, OR. Shangri-La for outdoor oriented people.

5. Victoria, BC. An unusually beautiful city.

6. Whitefish, MT. A crystal clear lake and big ski resort await.

7. Bozeman, MT. College town adjacent to Yellowstone.

8. Bellingham, WA. Charming, old, and on the coast.

9. Boise, ID. Fast growing city with many active communities.

10. Brookings, OR. In the foothills of the Klamath Mountains.

11. Port Townsend, WA. A classic old town on the coast.

12. Medford, OR. Home to Harry and David, this is fruit country.

13. Walla Walla, WA. The dry climate in Eastern Washington makes a great place for wine.
