NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, July 17, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Aviation Industry's Engines Community Will Gather in Madrid September 13-14 for Aero-Engines Europe 2023

Aviation Week Network's Annual Aero-Engines Europe (#AEEUR), will be held September 13-14 in Madrid, Spain at the NH Collection Madrid Eurobuilding, attracting industry leaders throughout the region.

We are looking forward to gathering in Europe once again to address the most pressing challenges facing the aero engine community.”

Lydia Janow, Sr. VP, Events, Aviation Week Network

The annual conference and showcase is the largest event in Europe exclusively dedicated to the trends and issues related to the region's aero engine community, attracting 400+ high level industry representatives from airlines, OEMs, MROs, lessors, suppliers and consultancies.

The conference agenda will feature more than 40 speakers dedicated to a variety of timely topics. This year's conference will include critical conversations around the impact of production delays and durability problems on engine operations, maintenance, and leasing. The Opening Keynote Presentation will be delivered by Enrique Robledo, Chief Technology Officer for Iberia Maintenance.

Panel discussions on a variety of topics include Short Term Maintenance and Leasing Trends, Reducing Component Repair Lead Times, Forecasting Parts Demands, and Engine OEM Priorities.

Aero-Engines Europe will also include networking receptions, luncheons, breakfasts, and coffee breaks. The event will conclude with a facility tour of the Iberia Maintenance Engines Shop. Aero Engines Europe is free for qualifying airline and lessor representatives.
