LAS VEGAS, NV, USA, July 18, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Although she established herself as a cataract surgeon over three decades ago, Dr. Helga Pizio of New Eyes Las Vegas states that her patient-centered values have remained the same. “We have always aimed to deliver individualized ocular care that improves our patients’ overall quality of life,” says Dr. Pizio, who leads a team of seven eye doctors at New Eyes Las Vegas. Castle Connolly® Medical Ltd, a healthcare research and publishing company that has identified top doctors and hospitals for over 25 years, distributes the “Top Doctor” awards annually. Their physician-led research team evaluates peer-nominated health professionals based on various criteria, including medical education, training, and professional reputation. In addition to ophthalmologists, doctors eligible for nomination include plastic surgeons, cardiovascular doctors, neurologists, and dozens of other medical professionals. Winners make up the top 7% of physicians in the country.

Dr. Pizio says she is humbled and honored to be considered a top eye doctor for so many years. She also encourages patients to consult the “Top Doctor” list to identify the best in comprehensive health care.
