LONG BEACH, CA, USA, July 18, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BYLTup has been named to the winning list of Nextdoor's 2023 Neighborhood Faves, the only annual awards where neighbors vote to celebrate their favorite local businesses. This year, Neighborhood Fave winners like BYLTup will receive greater visibility and ranking on the Nextdoor app as well as a sticker to showcase their win in the real world.

"Neighbors know best, and Nextdoor's Neighborhood Faves are the only annual awards celebrating the businesses that are most loved by

Used by one in three households in the US, Nextdoor is the neighborhood network where verified neighbors and businesses connect to the neighborhoods that matter to them.

"There is no better reward as a contractor than being referred to a new roofing and solar customer from a friend, family member, or a direct neighbor within the local community. That is why we love the Nextdoor platform and are extremely honored to be recognized by our customers and neighbors within the Long Beach and greater Los Angeles and Orange County communities in which we service daily," states BYLTup CEO, Trevor Leeds.
