The popularity of hot honey is going crazy right now and we are excited about offering this trendy new flavor to our patrons. It gives people bold flavor without being overwhelmed by too much heat.”

Tom Kazbour, Chief Operating Officer for Hungry Howie's of Florida

The new Bee Sting Pizza starts with a classic Hungry Howie's crust, which is then topped with classic cupped pepperoni and jalapeno slices, loads of 100% real mozzarella cheese and a sweet hot honey drizzle on top. Diners can also customize their pizza by swapping out the pepperoni and jalapeno for two toppings on their choice. This sweet heat Bee Sting pizza is baked to a golden perfection to create a delicious, one-of-a-kind flavor destined to be a summer must-try.

With more diners than ever before turning up the heat on their meals, hot honey has become one of the hottest sauces on the market. According to Nations Restaurant

News, hot honey has seen a 101% increase on menus nationwide over the past four years and the upward trend is continuing. In fact, international flavor and beverage company Monin, picked 'hot honey' as its 2023 Flavor of the Year.

Tom Kazbour, Chief Operating Officer for Hungry Howie's of Florida, believes the new Bee Sting Pizza will be very popular with Howie customers. “The popularity of hot honey is going crazy right now and we are excited about offering this trendy new flavor to our patrons,” comments Tom. “Hot honey is full of warmth and sweetness and it allows people to enjoy some bold flavor without being overwhelmed by too much heat,” Tom continues.

The Bee Sting Pizza is part of Hungry Howie’s 50th Anniversary celebration. Founded in 1973 in Taylor Michigan, Hungry Howie’s is celebrating 50 years of flavor with limited time specialty pizzas, secret menus, social media promotions and much more to be announced throughout the year.
