/EINPresswire.com/ -- Colin

Weatherwax was promoted to Chief Executive Officer of Cars for Kids following a career journey that started as a kid in 2011 when employed to wash the cars going up for auction at the car-donation nonprofit. He quickly rose through different ranks, eventually becoming Consignment Manager, Assistant Director, Director, Vice President of Operations, Chief Operations Officer, and CEO.

ABOUT AMERICA CAN! CARS FOR KIDS

Many individuals are deeply saddened by thinking about poverty in the developing world, but they feel that there is nothing they can do to improve the situation. Poverty is widespread, but we are unable to tackle it because of plenty of macroeconomic and social issues influencing people. This is why, throughout its history, Cars for Kids has prioritized funding for Texas schools that help kids finish high school. The
