

Flint Monarchs break league scoring record, defeats KC Crossover 118 – 69

Trio of Flint players combine for 68 points.

KANSAS CITY, KANSAS, UNITED STATES, July 22, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Flint Monarchs won their sixth consecutive league game and broke the GWBA scoring record with a 118 - 69 victory over the Kansas City Crossover in the first of three games scheduled over the weekend.

"I was very upset at halftime about how we played in the first half, I expressed my frustrations to the team and they responded by scoring 69 points in the second half," said Drey Wynn, Head Coach and General Manager.

The Monarchs set the previous Global Women's Basketball Association (GWBA) team scoring record on June 30, 2018 when they defeated the Indianapolis Bandits 117 – 67.

Former Ohio State University star Ameryst Alston had a game high 26 points (8 out of 14, 3-point field goals), former University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP) star Sparkle Taylor scored 20 points, former University of Kansas standout Asia Boyd scored 20 points and 13 rebounds, former Central Michigan University standout Brandie Baker scored 15 points, and rookie from Florida Gulf Coast University Kaela Webb chipped in 12 points. Micaela Kelly dished out a game high seven assists.
