Tom Yum Kush, Pink Lemonade, and Moonshine Haze, three new meticulously cultivated strains from OG Distribution.

BANGKOK, THAILAND, July 23, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- OG Distribution, a leading cannabis wholesale company, is thrilled to announce the addition of three captivating strains to its product lineup: Tom Yum Kush, Pink Lemonade, and Moonshine Haze. Each strain is meticulously cultivated and accompanied by a Certificate of Analysis from Mahakan Biotech, assuring customers of their superior quality and potency.

Tom Yum Kush, a sativa dominant hybrid nurtured indoors in Thailand, boasts an impressive 20.2% THC content. This strain offers an invigorating and uplifting experience, inducing bouts of infectious laughter. Its alluring buds showcase a mesmerizing array of green shades, ranging from vibrant lime to deep forest tones. Complementing this vivid display are the striking rusty orange pistils, providing a visually captivating ensemble. Tom Yum Kush is lavishly coated in icy trichomes and offers a delightful lemongrass and tangy citrus flavor when smoked.

Tom Yum Kush Strain

Thailand, boasts a remarkable 22.87% THC content. Its fruity and citrusy flavor, along with its sweet aroma, delights the senses. Users will experience a cerebral high accompanied by an uplifting wave of euphoria and enhanced focus, making it an ideal companion for brainstorming and creative endeavors. As the high gradually tapers, a soothing physical relaxation takes over.

Moonshine Haze, a sativa-dominant hybrid nurtured indoors in Thailand, offers a delightful 16.97% THC content. Its enticing aroma of citrus and floral pine sets the stage for an immersive full-bodied flavor profile. Perfect for creative sessions, Moonshine Haze provides users with an elevated sense of focus and a surge of energy to conquer any task at hand.
