BG Films Presents 'Blood and Love': A Gripping Action Assassin Film Now Streaming. Directed by Bobby Guions. Available on Tubi, Plex TV, and Amazon Prime.

SOUTH ORANGE, NJ, UNITED STATES, July 24, 2023 /EINPresswire.com/ -- BG Films, a renowned independent movie production and distribution company owned by award-winning director, producer, and spokesperson Bobby Guions, is thrilled to announce the digital streaming release of their critically acclaimed film, "Blood and Love." Originally released in 2010, the movie is now available for audiences to enjoy on various digital streaming platforms.

Directed and produced by Bobby Guions, "Blood and Love" takes viewers on an enthralling journey into the life of Drake (played by Peter Burke), a skilled assassin with an enigmatic past. The plot unfolds when he is hired by aspiring rising politician Benjamin Myers to clean up a problem for his campaign. Tasked with eliminating a woman whose presence may tarnish Myers' public image, Drake is sent to a hotel to carry out the mission.

However, fate intervenes when Drake finds himself unexpectedly drawn to Gail (portrayed by Gabrielle Loneck), the very woman he was assigned to eliminate. As Drake spends time with Gail, he begins to unravel the complexities of his emotions and struggles with his newfound feelings. Ultimately, he is faced with a life-altering decision that challenges his loyalty to his profession and his heart.
